

Fair Haven Baptist Church
Shelbyville, TN

Open Evenings January 11 - January 18

Due to a new extended forecast of nightly dangerous temperatures during the period of January 11 - January 18, an emergency warming center will be opening at Fair Haven Baptist Church (FHBC) 2726 Hwy 231 N beginning January 11th.

Hours of operation will normally be from 6PM until 8AM. An evening meal and a place to sleep out of the frigid temperatures is provided. In the morning a hot breakfast sandwich or light breakfast is provided before people depart for the day. All needing a respite from the dangerous cold are welcomed.

Anyone who needs transportation to FHBC may call John at 931-639-3321 for information about a ride. Transportation is limited so three designated pick-up points have been set: Soup Kitchen parking lot (approx. 5:30PM), Shelbyville – Bedford County Public Library parking lot (approx. 5:40PM) and Gateway Church parking lot at the red-light driveway (approx. 5:50PM).

If you have any questions about the program call John at 931-639-3321.
